FOR INFORMATION:

The English Certifying Authority has the power and duty to issue Apprenticeship completion certificates and has prescribed the manner in which these certificate applications are to be made. The declarations above must be confirmed by the Apprentice, prior to this form and all other supporting evidence of their required achievements, being uploaded to the Apprenticeship Certificates England (ACE) system. The Apprentice must also sign and date this form. The contents, and purpose, of this form should be discussed and explained to the Apprentice to ensure that they fully acknowledge and understand what they are declaring and, where appropriate, authorising a third party to do on their behalf.
