A TRANSPORT STRATEGY FOR THE SOUTH EAST

Transport for the South East (TfSE) launch their draft Transport Strategy consultation on 10th October. The Transport Strategy will set out how the transport system in the South East will need to be developed between now and 2050 to facilitate sustainable economic growth. Mark Valleley, TfSE Technical Manager, will talk through the key themes of the draft strategy and discuss how we can be involved in the consultation process. This is an opportunity to ask any questions about the strategy, or TfSE in general and to learn more about the work of the Sub National Transport Body for our region.

Date Weds 2 Oct 2019 - 19:00 for 19:30
Location Peter Brett Associates Ltd. Unit 10, 1 Dover Place, Connect 38
Ashford, TN23 1FB
Notes Refreshments provided
Code KTG0441 HOSTS: CILT

A PROFITABLE FUTURE FOR THE AUTOMOTIVE AFTERMARKET

The automotive aftermarket is apparently faced with a dramatic reduction in service activity (electric vehicles) and collision repair (ADAS followed by autonomy). Is this true? Andrew Marsh FIMI, Engineering Director, Auto Industry Consulting Ltd. uses information from vehicle manufacturers to explain how we got to this apparent position and the yawning gap between the hype and reality. Lest we forget, there are immense challenges ahead anyway, and the presentation will explore the implications for the aftermarket.

Date Thurs 14 Nov 2019 - 19:00 for 19:30
Location East Kent College, Ramsgate Road, Margate
Broadstairs, CT10 1PN
